The 2015 local scholarships are:

1. Kee Kitayama Memorial Scholarship:
   - The then Watsonville JACL established this scholarship in memory of our 1987 President, Kee Kitayama, a respected leader who worked tirelessly for Redress and Reparations. In 1997, Mrs. Keiko Kitayama’s generous donation in memory of her late husband, established this memorial scholarship as a Trust Fund which provides needed financial support for our young scholars. Mr. Kee Kitayama's legacy of encouraging our youth in their pursuit of higher education lives on in this scholarship.

2. Rekiso “Ray” and Hisako “Louise” Sako Scholarships:
   - The Sako scholarships were established in 2012 by Louise and the late Ray Sako to carry on their belief that education is the cornerstone to the future success of each new generation. These scholarships help local students who are actively involved with our JACL, Watsonville Buddhist Temple, or the Westview Presbyterian Church.
   - A four-year undergraduate scholarship may be awarded at $1,000 per year. This scholarship shall not be limited to first-year undergraduates. For example, an undergraduate who has completed the first year of study may be eligible for a $1,000 per year scholarship for up to three years.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY OF NISEI VETERANS
By Brian Shiroyama

Friends and Family of Nisei Veterans (FFNV) held its annual membership meeting at Morgan Hill Buddhist Community Center on February 14, 2015. About 70 members, guests and friends from Sacramento, Turlock, Fresno and Bay Area as well as South County enjoyed the traditional potluck and always warm camaraderie.

Lawson Sakai, Mas Tsuda and Mas Kadota (all 442 veterans) were recognized for being awarded of the most prestigious French Legion of Honor from the French Consul General of San Francisco on February 3. [Editor’s note: see our March 2015 W-SC JACL newsletter for coverage of the event.]

danger-packed mission against a German submarine base in Baltic Sea was exciting and his story of encountering a German soldier at Normandy was heartwarming.

A short video presentation of the Nisei Veterans' Exhibit aboard the USS Hornet Museum in Alameda concluded the meeting.

FFNV will next gather on May 16 in Oakland Hills for the annual memorial service and picnic. [Editor's note: please bring a warm jacket, just in case. Last year, with bright sunshine, an unexpected cold wind blew in from the west.]

If you wish more information about FFNV, please contact Brian Shiroyama at bshiroyama@gmail.com or call at (408) 896-1021.

[Editor's note: My science professor at Monterey Peninsula College (1953-1955) was Dr. Eugene Haderlie, one of the finest instructors I ever had. He survived WW II as a frogman in the English Channel when his team of 40 did not. He spoke of magnetic mines dropped by German bombers at night into the channel and harbors of Great Britain. Some mines were booby trapped so that if one tried to disarm it, the mine was triggered to explode. Later, Dr. Haderlie taught at the US Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey. He was a wonderful marine biologist. My minor in college was life science with emphasis on marine biology.]

SPEAKING ABOUT OUR UNJUST WARTIME INCARCERATION CONTINUES ...

Thanks to the invitations of social studies teachers, Mas Hashimoto spoke to high school juniors who are studying World War II. March's speaking engagements were at:
Ann Sobrato High School in Morgan Hill by teacher Andrea Kusanovich (9th year-350 students annually).
Harbor High School by Teresa Gaimes (3rd year-90 students annually).
International Women's Day (IWD) has been observed for over 100 years—since the early 1900’s, a time of great expansion and turbulence in an industrialized world that saw booming population growth and the rise of radical ideologies.

1908 Great unrest and critical debate was occurring amongst women. Women’s oppression and inequality was spurring women to become more vocal and active in campaigning for change. Then in 1908, 15,000 women marched through New York City demanding shorter hours, better pay and voting rights.

1909 In accordance with a declaration by the Socialist Party of America, the first National Woman’s Day (NWD) was observed across the United States on 28 February. Women continued to celebrate NWD on the last Sunday in February until 1913.

1910 In 1910 a second International Conference of Working Women was held in Copenhagen. A woman named Clara Zetkin (Leader of the ‘Women’s Office’ for the Social Democratic Party in Germany) tabled the idea of an International Women’s Day. She proposed that every year in every country there should be a celebration on the same day - a Women’s Day - to press for their demands. The conference of over 100 women from 17 countries, representing unions, socialist parties, working women’s clubs, and including the first three women elected to the Finnish parliament, greeted Zetkin’s suggestion with unanimous approval and thus International Women’s Day was the result.

1911 Following the decision agreed at Copenhagen in 1911, International Women’s Day (IWD) was honored the first time in Austria, Denmark, Germany and Switzerland on 19 March. More than one million women and men attended IWD rallies campaigning for women’s rights to work, vote, be trained, to hold public office and end discrimination. However, less than a week later, on 25 March, the tragic ‘Triangle Fire’ in New York City took the lives of more than 140 working women, most of them Italian and Jewish immigrants. This disastrous event drew significant attention to working conditions and labor legislation in the United States that became a focus of subsequent International Women’s Day events. 1911 also saw women’s Bread and Roses campaign.

1913-1914 On the eve of World War I campaigning for peace, Russian women observed their first International Women’s Day on the last Sunday in February 1913. In 1913 following discussions, International Women’s Day was transferred to 8 March and this day has remained the global date for International Women’s Day ever since. In 1914 further women across Europe held rallies to campaign against the war and to express women’s solidarity.

1917 On the last Sunday of February, Russian women began a strike for “bread and peace” in response to the death over 2 million Russian soldiers in war. Opposed by political leaders the women continued to strike until four days later the Czar was forced to abdicate and the provisional Government granted women the right to vote. The date the women’s strike commenced was Sunday, February 23 on the Julian calendar then in use in Russia. This day on the Gregorian calendar in use elsewhere was March 8.

1918–1999 Since its birth in the socialist movement, International Women’s Day has grown to become a global day of recognition and celebration across developed and developing countries alike. For decades, IWD has grown from strength to strength annually. For many years the United Nations has held an annual IWD conference to coordinate international efforts for women’s rights and participation in social, political and economic processes. 1975 was designated as ‘International Women’s Year’ by the United Nations. Women’s organizations and governments around the world have also observed IWD annually on March 8 by holding large-scale events that honor women’s advancement and while diligently reminding of the continued vigilance and action required to ensure that women’s equality is gained and maintained in all aspects of life.

2000 and beyond IWD is now an official holiday in Afghanistan, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Burkina Faso, Cambodia, China (for women only), Cuba, Georgia, Guinea-Bissau, Eritrea, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Madagascar (for women only), Moldova, Mongolia, Montenegro, Nepal (for women only), Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uganda, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Vietnam and Zambia. The tradition sees men honoring their mothers, wives, girlfriends, colleagues, etc with flowers and small gifts. In some countries IWD has the equivalent status of Mother’s Day where children give small presents to their mothers and grandmothers.

The new millennium has witnessed a significant change and attitudinal shift in both women’s and society’s thoughts about women’s equality and emancipation. Many from a younger generation feel that ‘all the battles have been won for women’ while many feminists from the 1970’s know only too well the longevity and ingrained complexity of patriarchy. With more women in the boardroom, greater equality in legislative rights, and an increased critical mass of women’s visibility as impressive role models in every aspect of life, one could think that women have gained true equality. The unfortunate fact is that women are still not paid equally to that of their male counterparts, women still are not present in equal numbers in business or politics, and globally women’s education, health and the violence against them is worse than that of men.

However, great improvements have been made. We do have female astronauts and prime ministers, school girls are welcomed into university, women can work and have a family, women have real choices. And so the tone and nature of IWD has, for the past few years, moved from being a reminder about the negatives to a celebration of the positives.

Annually, on March 8, thousands of events are held throughout the world to inspire women and celebrate achievements. A global web of rich and diverse local activity connects women from all around the world ranging from political rallies, business conferences, and government activities and networking events to local women’s craft markets, theatrical performances, fashion parades and more.

Many global corporations have also started to more actively support IWD by running their own internal events and through supporting external ones. For example, on March 8, search engine and media giant Google, some years ago changed its logo on its global search pages. Year upon year, IWD is certainly increasing in status. The United States even designates the whole month of March as ‘Women’s History Month’.

So make a difference, think globally and act locally!! Make everyday International Women’s Day. Do your part to ensure that the future for girls is bright, equal, safe and rewarding.

Guest speaker was KSBW-TV’s Brittany Nielson, a Watsonville native, who spoke on the importance of celebrating International Women’s Day.

Recently, she set up the Young Historians Award through PVHA, so that the youth of our community will be encouraged to take an interest in the history of their community. She has been instrumental in setting up a collaboration between PVHA, the Castro Adobe and Agricultural History Project that will benefit... the entire community, she worked with PVHA to support the Pajaro Park Development and has been a great supporter of the building of our new archive.

Dianne Avelar is the nominee from the Portuguese Fatima Festival. She is a leader in the community for continuing the Portuguese cultural dances and music and sharing it with the children in the dance group and the dance group performing at various Portuguese cultural festivities. Amy now works part-time as an investigator and advocate for children who are in child protective services, meeting with families and children to try and meet the needs of our most vulnerable children. Amy is also involved in bringing a program to Watsonville called Girls, INC. The goal of this program is to increase girls’ self-respect, empower them to make healthy choices, and inspire them to pursue a college education.

Esther Pascua Tabancay is the nominee from the Filipino American National Historical Society, Aptos chapter. Mrs. Tabancay owned and operated a family-run dry cleaning business, Ideal Cleaners, dating back to the 1930’s, located on the 100 block of Main Street in downtown Watsonville. She ran the business for over 50 years, co-owned by her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ragsac. Ideal Cleaners is historically significant because it represents an era of Filipino economic development which ceased with the emergence of the redevelopment and realignment of south Main St. in the 1960s. Mrs. Tabancay served as the first secretary of the Filipino Women’s Club, a member of the Board of Trustees and Scholarship Committee of the Filipino Community of Watsonville, and tutored Filipino students in English and math at Watsonville High.

Jeanette Otusji Hager is one of the nominees from the Watsonville-Santa Cruz Japanese American Citizens League (JACL). The National JACL is the largest and oldest Asian American civil rights organization in the nation founded in 1929. The Watsonville JACL chapter was founded in 1934. As president, vice-president, official delegate of the local JACL chapter, she has also had responsibilities for the national JACL. She has been an articulate spokesperson in compassionately advocating for equal rights for LGBT brothers and sisters. Her depth of giving is immeasurable and admirable.

She has been a resident of Watsonville for over 25 years. She teaches girls on Saturday and Sunday in the Islamic Center how to read and write in Arabic, along with teaching them about their religion. She emphasizes teaching them to be independent and respectful. She is a great example and asset to the Islamic community in Watsonville.

Georgeann Cowles Eiskamp is the nominee from the Agricultural History Project Center. Georgeann co-chaired two highly successful Harvest Dinners, the organizations major fund raising source. She served 5 years as a director and was instrumental in helping create a capital campaign that raised funds for a new tractor barn on the AHP site. She was always willing to lend a hand with whatever activity was at hand. Georgeann’s support of her community and its people is a shining example to all that know her.

Kris Beall is the nominee from the Wetlands Watch organization in Watsonville. She was the first Executive Director and later served terms as Vice President, President and Treasurer. Several others have done likewise but no one has come anywhere close to putting in the hours that Kris has as a volunteer – planning receptions, grant writing, docenting, licking envelopes for appeal letters, leading tours, editing our policy handbook, initiating joint projects with other nonprofits and government agencies, interviewing potential hires, writing newsletter articles, etc., etc. and even annually dressing up in her feathery “Big Bird” costume to pose on a flatbed truck in Watsonville’s Fourth of July parade! The Watsonville Wetlands Watch serves the Pajaro Valley in many ways to improve the quality of life of its residents. We protect and restore the local wetlands and raise the community’s appreciation of their richness in support of wildlife and recreation. Most important, we focus on teaching K-12 children - over 2,000/year - throughout the PVUSD, using hands-on methods in our outdoor wetlands laboratory. Kris has been at the forefront in establishing the Wetlands Watch as an important, viable, sustaining agency in contributing to the quality of life in the Pajaro Valley.

Patricia Gospodnetich Solano is the nominee from the Slavic-American Cultural Organization. She was born and raised in Watsonville and is the granddaughter of immigrant Croatians. She was the founding member of what is now known as the Slavic-American Cultural Organization (SACO). She also still holds the #1 membership card of which she is very proud. The organization started when a group of community members, who were students in a Slavic language class got the idea of starting a cultural organization that would help to promote the Slavic cultures in our community. Patricia wrote the Bylaws that helped govern the organization and led the groups’ officers in establishing monthly meetings, annual fundraising events and was also the original editor and publisher of the organization’s newsletter, The Kalifornski. She remains a very proud, active and enthusiastic participant in activities that promote the Slavic-American culture in the Pajaro Valley.

Aimee Mizuno is also a nominee from our Watsonville-Santa Cruz JACL. Her leadership qualities shine as she helps organize people to rally and to march for immigration reform and for the protection against violence. Aimee cares deeply for children and her compassion is evident in the tremendous amount of time and effort she devotes to their well being. She is the current second vice president, youth advisor, and a member of our youth scholarship committee. Aimee willingly and enthusiastically offers her assistance to our organization, and her community outreach is commendable. She is truly dedicated to upholding the civil and human rights for all; educating the greater community of the historic challenges and achievements of the Japanese Americans during and after World War II; and promoting cultural appreciation of our richly diverse community.

Paul gave information about an IRS scam – This advice was given by a Treasury Deputy Inspector General - Real IRS agents usually contact people first by mail and they never demand payment by debit card, credit card or wire transfer. If someone calls unexpectedly claiming to be from the IRS with aggressive threats if you do not pay immediately, it is a scam artist calling. The IRS does not initiate contact with taxpayers by telephone. If you do owe money to the IRS, chances are you have already received some form of a notice or correspondence from the IRS in your mailbox. BEWARE of SCAMS.

IN REMEMBRANCE …

Roland Kenneth Johnson

Roland Kenneth Johnson, only child and son of Marie and Roy Johnson, born in San Jose Hospital, Dec. 4, 1922, passed away on February 23, 2015. He attended grammar school in San Jose until 1932 when the family moved to Morgan Hill where they lived on a ranch in Paradise Valley. Roland attended Morgan Hill Elementary School and then Live Oak High School where he graduated in 1940. He attended San Jose State College 1940-1942 but left to join the US Army Air Corps with our entry into World War II. He served from 1942-45 in the European theater and then in the South Pacific. He maintained aircraft in England for attacks on continent.

He returned to San Jose State College for two years before joining the newly created US Air Force in 1950.

While stationed in Japan 1952-1953 and 1955-1958, he met and married Inako Yokoo. Three children, Hope, Kenneth, and Faith were born in Japan.

After Hope was born, Roland was prevented from bringing his family to the United States due to racial prejudice at the time. His father petitioned then Congressman Charles Guber for assistance, and a bill was passed permitting Inako’s and Hope’s entry into the US provided certain conditions were met.

Roland and family returned to US where he was stationed in various locations around the US for 8 years: Pittsburg, 1958; Keesler AFB, Mississippi, 1959; Malmstrom AFB, Montana, 1960-1963; Glasgow AFB, Montana 1963-66. Two more daughters were born in this time: Marie in 1958 and Barbara “Bobbi Jo” in 1962.

When he was sent to Vietnam in 1966 he relocated his family to Morgan Hill, where he and his wife lived until 1999.

Masaru “Mas” Yamasaki

Masaru “Mas” Yamasaki, Sept. 22, 1929 - Feb. 20, 2015; a resident of Fremont, CA. Mas joined his wife in Nirvana on February 20th. He was born in Sacramento in 1929, number 5 of 7 boys.

He and his family were incarcerated in Tule Lake, CA during WWII when Japanese and Japanese Americans were forced from their homes due to Executive Order 9066 of February 19, 1942. The family relocated to Berkeley after the war.

“Mas,” as he was known by family and friends, served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War, where he served under the colonel in charge of the MASH units that was popularized in the movie and TV series. That colonel honored Mas with the Bronze Star, which became one of the most important recognitions of his life.

Married to Helen Etsuko Tashiro of Honokaa, HI in 1963, the couple settled down in Fremont, CA, where they reared their two children, Lauren and Kyle.
Mas enjoyed an early retirement and kept busy with speaking to students of the many schools in the Bay Area about Japanese American wartime experience. [Editor’s note: We shared stories and experiences.]

Mas and Helen were both very active with the Southern Alameda County Buddhist Church (SACBC), serving on the board as well as being a Dharma School teacher for more than 25 years.

Mas was the primary caregiver to his wife during her battle with Alzheimer’s disease until her transition in 2010.

Mas, known for his jokes and puns, is survived by his children and their families, two of his brothers and their families and many more extended family members.

His memorial service was held at SACBC at 32975 Alvarado-Niles Road, Union City, CA 94587 on Saturday, February 28th.

We send our condolences to the Johnson and Yamasaki families, relatives, and friends.

4th ANNUAL WATSONVILLE FILM FESTIVAL

“I’m writing to congratulate and thank the team of people who organized this year’s Watsonville Film Festival. It was superb. We were offered an outstanding selection of films and the opportunity to hear many of the filmmakers in person. I think this festival is a real feather in the cap of our small community and something to make us proud of Watsonville. I somehow missed the opportunity of becoming a sponsor of this year’s festival, but I won’t miss it next year!”

Amy Newell

Dear Amy, we share your joy and enthusiasm for this year’s fabulous festival. [Editor’s note: Amy is a long-time W-SC JACLer.]

Among the young filmmakers is Marissa Kitazawa (third from the left) who filmed our W-SC JACL Senior Center! Thank you, Marissa, for capturing the spirit of our Seniors.

GUARDING AGAINST UNJUST INCARCERATION BY US GOVERNMENT

We, in 1942, were held without charges, attorney, trial, or due process of law by those who swore, with their oath of office, to uphold the Constitution of the United States! They didn’t!

Now, one would think, after all these years, that America has learned the lesson of our unjust wartime incarceration, but it has not! It must never happen again to anyone in this country! We are, in short, the modern guardians of the Bill of Rights!

As JACLers, it is our duty to fight for and protect the civil and human rights of every American and legal resident. You can help. How? By continuing your membership in our Watsonville-Santa Cruz JACL chapter and by taking an active role in our mission.

Our Watsonville-Santa Cruz JACL is truly grateful to its members and friends who have donated to this year’s 2015 Day of Remembrance Education Fund (DOREF). Thank you. To those who haven’t, please help with what you can. Each donation helps to preserve our Nikkei history and legacy.

This DOREF maintains a safe hall/dojo for our Seniors and cultural groups; honors our youths with the Kee Kitayama Memorial Scholarship(s); and supports this monthly newsletter.
