ON THE COVER

Goro, Shizu and Sumi Yamashita, proprietors of Yamashita Market

In 1928, Tokizo and Haru Yamashita purchased Pajaro Valley Fish Market from the Kitazawa family. It was located next to Oda's Barber Shop at 188 Main St., now a McDonald's. After returning from Tule Lake Segregation Center, a new store was built at its current location, 114 Union St.

The market on Main St. during the flood of 1938, with Mary, Tokizo, Haru and Sachiko.

Dear Members & Friends,

Happy 2016 New Year!

Welcome to our eighth issue of the Watsonville-Santa Cruz Japanese American Citizens League Community Directory.

We extend our appreciation to the businesses, professional services and organizations who have made this 2016 Directory the best ever! Most of our ad donors have thoughtfully and generously supported our chapter for many years for which we are thankful. We also appreciate and are excited about our first time directory sponsors.

We encourage our members and friends to use this listing guide as a helpful reference. I, personally, keep our directory by the telephone and refer to it often.

Our community is fortunate to have these highly regarded services, and our organization is most grateful for their support of our outreach in education, civil rights, cultural appreciation and efforts to provide a safe and comfortable recreation facility for our seniors and cultural groups.

Thank you,
Marcia Hashimoto, President
