A STORM IS BREWING …

Our weather this past July has been perfect. The tourists visiting Santa Cruz, Monterey, Carmel, Pebble Beach, Point Lobos, Big Sur and, of course, Watsonville, have snapped memorable photos of their visit to be included with their Christmas cards or New Year’s greetings.

They may have played golf on one of the world’s premiere courses, dined at a world famous restaurant, explored our Monterey Bay Marine Sanctuary, and eaten our finest local fruits and vegetables.

The most photographed tree in the world—the Lone Cypress—on the famous “17 Mile Drive”.

We see to be immune from the problems of race and religion facing other locales for Santa Cruz County is the second most liberal in the country after San Francisco City/County. But, hate groups do exist in our county as reported recently by the Southern Poverty Law Center.

Even after the success of the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s, race relations have not improved for too many. Left behind in education, advanced technology, economic inequities, social justice, and civil rights are they.

There is much work ahead for our JACL chapters and national organization. We need your help and support as full members of the W-SC JACL. Join us in the fight for racial and gender equality, civil rights, and social justice.

2016 JACL National Convention  By Kimiko Marr

The JACL National Convention took place July 11-14 at the Monte Carlo in Las Vegas. There were many serious topics to vote on this year like the election of new National Board members (including the President!), passing a budget for 2017-18 as well as 3 regular resolutions and 2 emergency resolutions.

Day one we heard reports from each National board member, and there was a panel discussion on the future of the Pacific Citizen with Bill Imada, Gil Asakawa and Jay Kim from the Asian American Advertising Federation. The nomination of the candidates for the board was followed by a discussion of the 2015-16 budget and a presentation of the 2017-18 proposed budget.

Day two, the candidates addressed the delegates and there was a civic engagement presentation given by Sue Van the President/CEO of the Wallace H. Coulter Foundation. Consul General Jun Yamada and Minister Takuya Sasayama joined moderator Floyd Shimomura for a presentation of the US-Japan Committee Report including a short video of last year’s Kakehashi Program participants. During lunch the National Youth/Student Council had a Youth Awards Lunch with a speaker from the Black Lives Matter movement.

The afternoon was spent discussing proposed resolutions. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolution 1 which states “Acknowledgement of the civil rights violations forcefully imposed on Canadian Citizens of Japanese descent during and in the years following the end of World War II by the Canadian Government.”

Resolution 2 which states “Additional funding for the Pacific Citizen operations.”

Resolution 4 which states “A resolution of the National Council of the Japanese American Citizens League affirming support for a U.S. asylum policy free of racial and religious prejudice.”

Emergency Resolution 2 which states " A resolution of the National Council of the Japanese American Citizens League relating to support for the establishment of the Tule Lake National Historic Site and protection and preservation of the entire historic site.”

Our final day started with voting for the new officers and the adoption of a 2017-18 budget. The new officers are:

Gary Mayeda, President
Jeffrey Moy, VP, Public Relations
Matthew Farrells, VP, Planning and Development
Michelle Amano, VP General Operations
Kota Mizutani, Youth Representative

The awards luncheon, hosted by David Ono, celebrated the recipients of the 2016 Legacy Fund grants as well as the winner of the George Inagaki Chapter Citizenship award that went to John Saito of the Venice-Culver chapter.

The Sayonara Gala included the installation of officers by Norman Y. Mineta, the presentation of the JACL Ruby Pins: Floyd Shimomura, Ken Inouye, and Larry Oda; and the announcement of the Japanese Americans of the Biennium Awards: Carole Hayashino, President and Executive Director of the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii; Delphine Hirasuna, author of "The Art of Gaman" and June Kuramoto and Dan Kuramoto of the group, Hiroshima.

At the 47th annual JACL National Convention, the National Student Youth Council honored Black Lives Matter Los Angeles Chapter for doing impactful organizing within the Black community. Shamell Bell, street dance activist, community organizer, choreographer, and PhD student at UCLA, accepted the award on behalf of BLM-LA. Bell shared the experience of being a mother of a black son. She shared a story that symbolized the difference in what "getting shot" means. When she was watching her son and his white friend play, her 5-year-old son asked Bell if she was ‘gonna get shot.’ Bell was petrified that her son would ask such a gut-wrenching question about reality of the Black community. As she was about to answer, a young white child said, "The doctor gave me a shot," pointing to his arm where he got a vaccine. The difference in the meaning of "getting shot" means different things depending on the skin color of an individual.

Bell emphasized that the liberation of the Asian American/Pacific Islander community is directly to the liberation of the Black community. Black Lives Matter needs to be a priority for the AA/PI community. White supremacy has created stereotypes such as the model minority myth. Asian Americans have been used as an example of achieving the "American Dream," making other communities of color "lazy." Because white America perceives Asian Americans as the "safe" minority, we reap the benefit of white supremacy. Because of this, Asian Americans must use our privilege to assist the liberation of the Black and Brown communities that face the brunt of white supremacy. Especially for a community that comes from generations of anti-Blackness and internalized model minority, we must undo those narratives. Bell then closed with the Assata Shakur chant, "It is our duty to fight for our freedom. It is our duty to win. You must love and protect one another. We have nothing to lose but our chains." It was an amazing speech that broke barriers for the Nikkei community within the JACL.

During Bell’s speech, certain individuals left in the middle of her speech as a form of resistance to the idea of Black lives mattering. These individuals who shall not be named were known to have made anti-Black comments during the convention promoting the problematically racist, ignorant, and violent Internet slogan of All Lives Matter.

As Asian Americans we forget that we benefit from the violent system of white supremacy. We must remember that the police state has origins in the hunting down of Black bodies during the times of slavery. The system of the police is rooted in inherent anti-Blackness and violence against Black and Brown bodies. For many centuries there has been a pattern of the Black community being targeted by the state. This pattern is not an accident. It is a system of violence that has played out in generations in the United States.

[Editor’s note: Kimiko Marr and Laurel Mayeda were our W-SC JACL chapter’s official delegates to the convention, and we are grateful for these reports written for our members. In September, we will submit reports on the JACL’s financial crisis, membership dues increase, and the cost of hard copies of the Pacific Citizen.]
Day two started out with a trip to the actual camp site and walking tours with the National Park Service. We were able to see a reconstructed barrack, fire house and mess hall. What made it even more special was that there was a woman in my tour group that was actually incarcerated at Minidoka when she was a young teen. She shared several memories about the barracks and the mess hall and going to dances! It is an amazing experience to hear firsthand accounts of the camps WHILE touring the actual site.

During the afternoon of day two we returned to the University of Southern Idaho for what was called "Legacy Sessions". We were split up into intergenerational groups of about 15 where we could discuss how the incarceration has affected us whether personally or through family or friends. It was a chance for the generations to hear each other.

On the last day we went to the dedication of the new baseball field at Minidoka. There were several former Minidoka baseball players in attendance Kerry Yo Nakagawa of "American Pastime" (movie).

The pilgrimage was such a wonderful experience that I would like to encourage everyone to attend one! For more information on Minidoka’s pilgrimage you can go to minidokapilgrimage.org.

1—NISEI TROOPS HONORED IN ITALY (no author)

LEGHORN, Italy – Some 3,000 Nisei troops, bearing their historic battle flag with its three Presidential unit citation streamers and a single white combat streamer, were designated today by Gen. Francis H. Oxx, area commander, to lead the V-J Day parade here. Altogether 15,000 GI’s will be in line.

The Nisei troops will be in the van in this victory march as they were when they spearheaded the attacks that opened the Vosges Mountain doorway to Strasbourg last October and when they snatched the Thirty-sixth Infantry Division’s lost battalion of Texans from the encircling Germans. These two actions, incidentally, cost them 2,3000 casualties in three weeks.

Col. V. R. Miller of Minnesconne, Wisc., who commands the Nisei, will lead them in the march. Beside him will march Maj. Mitsuyo Fukuda, Honolulu high school teacher, who is the last remaining member of the 100th Nisei Battalion still in Italy.

Simultaneously with General Oxx’s announcement that the Japanese boys from the islands and from the United States mainland would hold the honor position in the V-J Day parade came a petition from all men in D Company of the 168th Infantry Regiment, a white regiment stationed here, the Nisei boys during the readjustment problems back in the States.

The communications said:

From Company D, 168th Infantry Regiment, Thirty-fourth Infantry Division to the 100th Infantry Battalion and 442nd Infantry Regiment:

The undersigned members of Company D, 168th Infantry Regiment, in appreciation of the heroic and meritorious achievements of our fellow Americans in the 100th Infantry Battalion and the 442nd Infantry Battalion do hereby assert that our help may be counted upon to convince the folks back home that you are fully deserving of all the privileges with which we ourselves are bestowed.

It is a privilege and an honor to acknowledge the members of the 100th Battalion and the 442nd Regiment as fellow Americans. We are duly proud to say “Well Done” to you and yours.

Sincerely, your American buddies of Company D, 168th Infantry, Thirty-fourth Division.

This document, a spontaneous appreciation from the officers and GI’s of the 168th, bore the names of every man in the unit, from Lieut. Maxwell Roblee, acting commanding officer, to the lowest buck private. There were 117 signatures all told.

2--442ND TO PRESENT FUNDS FOR ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL (Penbase Press)

Upon his return from Potsdam, President Harry Truman will be presented with a purse of 4413 dollars as a Roosevelt Memorial Fund, made up spontaneously by the 442d Combat Team, Japanese Americans, now attached to the Base Section as PW guards.
The presentation will be made in Washington by a delegation of 442d men now in hospitals near Washington headed by Mr. Earl Finch of Hattiesburg, Miss., who took a warm interest in the regiment and the 100th Bn, when they were in training at Camp Shelby and who now is helping the returning veterans find jobs where they won’t meet the bigotry and intolerance prevalent around their former homes.

When President Roosevelt died the 442nd was in the line. Upon the German collapse in Italy, a spontaneous movement arose among the combat team for a memorial to the man who had stood as a symbol or racial intolerance, T-5 Toshiyaki Hayashi, Special Service NCO, initiated the collection of the fund.

The regiment, the 232nd Engineer Co. and the 206th AGF Band, members of the Combat Team, contributed 3638 dollars. The 552nd Field artillery Bn., formerly a member of the team, sent a check for 775 dollars, bringing the total to 4413 dollars.

It had been planned originally to send the money directly to President Truman in Washington but Army Regulations prohibit that. Mr. Finch then was asked to form the delegation and upon conferring with the Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, Assistant Secretary of War John J. McCloy, War Relocation Director Dillon S. Myer, and Delegate Joseph Farrington of the Territory of Hawaii, plans were made to hold the presentation ceremony in the White House.

3—“VFW UNANIOUSLY Votes to Admit Nisei War Hero”

SENIOR CENTER NEWS By Jo Ann Vear

Many Senior Center members attended the JACL Community Picnic on Saturday, June 25 at Aptos Village Park. We had many exciting games of bingo for some wonderful prizes provided by our JACL chapter. After a performance by Watsonville Taiko and the scholarship presentations, we enjoyed a delicious lunch, more bingo, strawberry shortcake, ice cream social, and the raffle. It was a wonderful day.

Thirty-six Seniors and friends traveled to Table Mountain Casino on June 28th for a relaxing day away from home. Goodies for the bus ride were provided by Alice Misumi, Jackie Yamashita, Jean Yamashita, Kazuko Sakai, Jean Akiyama, Rubie Kawamoto, Toshi Yamashita, Haru Ishibashi, Hide Nagamine, Yaeko Cross, Linda Murray, Yoshiko Nishihara, Nobue Fujii, and Eiko Nishihara. Jean Yamashita who organized this trip from start to finish did a terrific job! Paul and Carol Kaneko were able to relax and not worry about losing anyone at the casino.

June ended at the Senior Center with an early 4th of July treat from Susan AmRhein and Helen Nakano. Helen provided the red, white, and blue table decorations and Susan and Helen treated everyone to ice cream and berries sundaes, also red, white, and blue.

On July 7, we all welcomed back Sam and Yae Sakamoto. It was wonderful to see them again after a long absence.

Satoko Yamamoto 90 and Haruko Yoshii 99 are enjoying Bon Odori. Photos by Carol Kaneko.

July 17 was the Watsonville Buddhist Temple Obon festival. Many Seniors were seen there enjoying themselves - eating delicious food and chatting with family and friends. Many were also selling food and working in the kitchen, something they had been doing for several days before obon. Several seniors were also seen dancing – June Honda even made it to the platform for the final two dances (she has the videos). Nancy Iwami, 102, visiting from Reno, was seen having her picture taken with Watsonville mayor Felipe Hernandez and Buddhist Churches of America president Ken Tanimoto.

July’s birthday celebration was held on July 21 with birthday honorees Phil Shima, Sunao Honda, Kumiko Nakatani, Nobue Fujii, and Michiko Hamada 95. Absent were Mary Perez, Floy Sakata 91, and Chiyoko Yagi 96. The 90 and overs were given a gift package. Thanks to Hisako Kodama, Jean Akiyama, and Mitsuyo Tao for the beautiful flower arrangements on all the tables. The colorful dahlias were from June Honda’s garden.

Following the July birthday party, 26 Seniors enjoyed a movie night with iced tea and kettle corn as refreshments, courtesy of Jean Yamashita and Carol Kaneko. Kimiko Marr presented several of the documentaries she has filmed and produced. One was a two-part film called “Lost and Found” about two Japanese American men who knew each other as kids growing up in Sacramento and seventy years later, reunite and get acquainted again. Other films were about camps and camp life. The Seniors enjoyed the films and several stayed after to discuss them with the film maker, Kimiko Marr.
Thank you so much for all the help in the kitchen this past month. The toban ladies were Terry Hirahara, Kimiko Marr and Pat Marr.

Terry Hirahara brought her mother Etsuko Yano to bingo while she was here staying with Terry. Fran Schwamm brought Lily Yamashita who was here visiting with her son. Chiyoko Yagi came with her daughter, Sharon Lowenstein, who was visiting for obon.

Kitty Mizuno told us about the Friday “Open House” for Kokoro no Gakko which was held July 8 at the Buddhist Temple. There was a presentation from each class kindergarten through 6th grade and a raffle of wonderful prizes. This Japanese cultural program has taken place in Watsonville for over 25 years. Children learn Japanese crafts, songs, language, games, cooking, etc. Some of the special projects include making mochi, ikebana, sumi-e brush painting, bonsai, taiko drumming, sushi making, shashiko sewing, puppet making and much more. Older students interview their older relatives or friends about their family, immigration stories and about their experiences during World War II and present reports about their interviews. Students come back to Kokoro no Gakko every year and continue to come back as volunteers after they have graduated. Kokoro no Gakko is grateful to the members of the community to come to teach and assist with the program and there are many participants from the Senior Center.

Monetary donations were gratefully received this month from Etsuko Yano, Chiyoko Yagi, Nobue Fujii, Kumiko Nakatani, Sunao Honda, Michi Hamada, and Floy Sakata.

Thank you very much for all your generous donations:

2016 KOKORO NO GAKKO By Dr. Janet Nagamine

We just completed the 27th annual Kokoro No Gakko cultural program! It is remarkable that the parents, teachers, and community members have kept the program going strong for so many years. And, it was an honor to meet and work with many of the Gakko Alumni and Grandparents who are now returning with their children and grandchildren! Save the date--next year will be June 26, 2017 to July 7.
BWA ladies--Aiko Nitao, Mitsuyo Tao, and Hideko Nagamine--assist students with their ikebana project.

Gakko’s 2nd graders sing about fish in the ocean.

Sensei Bob Gomez rehearses a Japanese song with the 1st graders. They are pointing to their atama (head).

The Kindergarten students of Sensei Debbe Hoshiyama Chan and Marcia Hoshiyama Hashimoto are wearing the origami kabuta (warrior’s helmet) they folded for Boy’s Day (5/5). Student helper is Jaime Sakuma and parent helper is Amy Uyematsu Reams.

Volunteer helpers are Hery Kamimura (standing), Stacey Nomura, Shirley Wong, Ryan Sakakihara, ? and Nancy Shikuma-Watson.

FROM OUR 2016 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

MIKE MIKAWA

Thank you very much and a big thank you to the Watsonville Santa Cruz JACL Scholarship committee. I am very grateful for this support from the JACL and the Sako family.

This summer I am interning for the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. I’m working my entire summer from end of finals and until classes begin this fall. Currently, I’m working at the Federal Trade Commission in the Bureau of Competition and later this summer I’ll be working at the U.S. Department of Justice. I feel very fortunate for these opportunities. This past spring, I was also able to extern under the tutelage of the Honorable A. Wallace Tashima on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Judge Tashima is the first and only Japanese American judge to sit on the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Since I’m in Washington, D.C. this summer, I unfortunately won’t be able to attend the Community Picnic. I have asked my mom if she could attend.

AMANDA AKIYAMA

Dear Mrs. Sako:

I am very grateful and honored to be a Rekiso “Ray” and Hisako “Louise” Sako Scholarship recipient. I am thankful for the aid this scholarship has provided helping me with college expenses.

After three years at Occidental College, I can truthfully say Occidental is the perfect match for me. Without the aid of your scholarships I would not have been able to attend this home away from home. I have made strong connections with professors and students, adopting easily to college life. Everyone was very caring and every class was personalized.

I am learning valuable life lessons both in and out of the classroom.

Not only has this scholarship allowed me to be a part of the Occidental educational community but also in their sports. I participate on the Women’s Water Polo Team. I made strong connections with teammates who became lifelong friends. Our team worked well together and ended the season strong.

With the aid of your scholarship I could have missed out on all of these educational and memorable experiences. I aspire to continue my education with a major in Biology while continuing to play collegiate water polo. I also studied abroad in the Galapagos Islands last semester and had a wonderful experience. As a student who needs financial aid, all of this could not be tangible without your help. You help fuel my aspirations and encourage me to continue to give everything my best.

Sincerely,
Amanda Akiyama

MELISSA TAO

Going to Cabrillo College was one of the smartest and most helpful decision I have made when it came to choosing the right path for my future. After graduating high school, I thought I had an idea of what career I wanted to pursue, but Cabrillo College gave me the chance to learn about myself and made me realize exactly what I want to do with my academic future.

My freshman year of college I was very angry at myself for not leaving and getting the freshman experience that all my other friends were obtaining. I just finished my second year at Cabrillo, and I look back and think about why I even thought those thoughts. Cabrillo has provided me with so many opportunities like the Honors Program, AGS Honors Society Club, and helped me not waste my money on a career that I wouldn’t have pursed. I am glad I have made these decisions because it has resulted in a productive college experience.

I am very grateful for the Reiko “Ray” and Hisako “Louise” Sako Scholarships which I have received these past three years, and I will continue to do my very best. Thank you so much, Mrs. Sako and the Watsonville-Santa Cruz JACL.

SARAH NAGAMINE

I couldn’t have asked for a better first year of college. I was really scared at first going to school so far away but the friends that I made helped make Amherst feel like home. Without my core group of friends, I would have gotten homesick all the time.
People always asked me why someone from California would go to school in Massachusetts. My response to them was why not. I wanted to experience new things with new people in a new region. Everyone always asks me how I deal with the winters since they’re so different than the typical California winter. I’ve always enjoyed the snow and have wanted to live in an area where it snows. Watching it fall from the sky is so tranquil to me so I usually don’t complain too much about the frigid temperatures, but when it’s below 0°F it’s a little hard not to.

I’d like to thank the Sako family and the JACL for helping me write these new chapters in my life and allowing me to continue my education.

In gratitude,

Sarah Nagamine

WESTVIEW “CHIMES” By Leslie Nagata-Garcia

You want to really see and experience Jesus?

Youth Mission Report:  This past week I got to lead our youth on a service and mission trip to Hollywood and the Mexico Border. I was reminded why I love mission trips, I got to profoundly see and experience Jesus!

We went to The Center a homeless ministry in the heart of urban Hollywood attached to Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church. Many ministries “to persons without homes” provide food and services, but often the people feel like a number in a long line of the needy. At The Center they come and find community as they sit and drink coffee and tea in the garden patio, they attend a seminar on centering and finding peace, they get their mail. I felt Jesus as we just sat with and talked with different people who live on the streets. I met Mike who is an artist and showed me some of his incredible work through pictures on his phone. I met Anthony who dreams of building a house on some land he owns outside Spokane, WA. I felt Jesus as I met these men, loved them with dignity, and told them I would pray for them.

We went to Homeboy Industries in one of the hotbeds of LA gangs. Homeboy is a place started by Fr Greg Boyle as he sought to save people from the gangs. We met Abraham and Jacquelyn who both came from gangs and prison and have found a path to a new life through the ministry of Homeboy where they work in the bakery, silkscreen shop or Homegirl Café alongside rival gang members and find a way of peace, find God, get job skills, receive counseling, get legal help, and rather than dwelling in hopelessness they begin to dream again for their lives. Jesus felt very present through the love and encouragement we experienced in the staff and all who entered. We felt Jesus at the morning staff meeting as a young man, who was obviously afraid of public speaking, shared the inspiring thought for the day to a room of 75 people and then the whole room was led in prayer. We felt Jesus as we saw tattooed, tough men greet each other with love, an urban handshake, and often a hug. We felt Jesus in every corner of that place.

We went to the Mexican border and met Officer Jose of the Border Patrol who seemed to want to make sure all immigrants they dealt with were treated with dignity. Officer Jose struggled with how we could reform our immigration system to make the pathway to legal entry easier and less cumbersome. We felt Jesus as we looked over the fortified fence into a very impoverished neighborhood on the other side. We felt the compassion of Jesus as we learned that the minimum wage in Mexico is $4.25 a day, not an hour, but per day! We felt the compassion of Jesus as we stood in Friendship Circle, a place at the border fence where families and friends are allowed to come each weekend to talk, cry, laugh, and feel less separated by a border.

“Would you like to see Jesus?” [Mother Teresa takes Bishop Curlin around a few walls to a man lying on a black leather pallet who has clearly visible things crawling on his body. As the bishop stands there in shock, Mother Teresa kneels down and wraps her arms around him, holding him like a baby in one’s arms.] Here he is. [The bishop asks “Who?”] Jesus, she says. Didn’t he say you’d ‘find me in the least person on earth?’ Isn’t this Jesus challenging us to reach out and love?” -Mother Teresa

I felt like we saw Jesus and felt Jesus as we walked on the edge—as we walked on the edge with those who were in desperation, in pain, in recovery, in poverty. I felt Jesus tangibly as we saw them be Jesus’ love to each other at Homeboy Industries and as we got to be Jesus as we reached out in love to those without homes at The Center. We felt the compassion of Jesus as we looked over the border into extreme poverty.

How is God inviting you to walk on the edge?—to be with others on the edge of need. How might you be blessed as you experience Jesus, and as you get to be Jesus’ love? It is Amazing! It is a taste of Heaven on earth!

God bless you and be with you,

Pastor Dan

Youth Mission Trip "home" was dinner in which we had to find dinner out on the street when we had no money. It was definitely a test of our creativity and faith to find God!

Relay for Life
The Relay for Life event that was held July 16th – 17th at the Watsonville High School raised a total of over $65,000 for the American Cancer Society. This year, Westview joined another team called X Out Cancer. Together, they were named a Silver Team (raised over $3600 as a team) and exceeded their original goal of $2000. Team X Out Cancer thanks all those who volunteered at Relay for Life and/or made donations to make this a very successful event!!

Youth/Family Upcoming Events:
The true name is "IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776."

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

The true birthday of the United States of America is July 2, 1776 when the Second Continental Congress voted 12-0 for independence. New York, which had abstained, later voted for the resolution on independence.

A simple resolution or a "declaration" does not make one free and independent. One must first win a war and then sustain the peace.

The "Declaration of Independence" is the nickname of the document whose final wording was adopted on July 4. The true name is "IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776. The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America." Note: united, an adjective, is spelled with a small "u" for the states were not yet fully united.

No one signed the document on the 4th of July. It came back from the printers on August 2. Delegates (56) signed it from time to time over the next few years. The first to sign was our first President of the united States of America and the Second Continental Congress—John Hancock of Massachusetts. He is also remembered for his large, flamboyant signature on the document so that put your "John Hancock" there meant your signature.

In the course of the American Revolutionary War (1775-1783) many of the 56 signatories were to lose their lives and their fortunes but not their sacred honor.

It has been estimated that only one-third of the Americans were true Patriots—that the other thirds were either Loyalists (Tories) or didn’t care one way or the other.

Today, we wonder whether we are "united." Perhaps, one-third of Americans are for the Republican candidate for President, another one-third for the Democratic candidate, and the final one-third doesn’t care.

The time has come to spell "united" with a capital "U"—United States of America and to mean it.

It is paramount that all eligible, registered voters exercise the duty of American citizenship by voting in the Presidential election on November 8, 2016. Register, then vote!

“COMMON CAUSE” REPORTS ...

Across the nation, Common Cause is working to ensu re that everybody counts in our democracy.

Common Cause organized a “friend of the court” brief from 19 counties and cities across America and filed our own brief in Evenwel v. Abbot, a case the U. S. Supreme Court heard in December.

The Texas-based plaintiffs sought to radically alter how every state draws legislative districts to require counting only eligible voters instead of the total population.

This would have made children, immigrants, and others who live and work in our communities invisible in our democracy. It would also have resulted in huge difference in population between districts and severe underrepresentation in state legislatures for communities with relatively large non-voter populations.

Fortunately, the Court rejected this partisan move and ruled 8-0 that states may continue using Census data—that is, total population—to draw districts. SCOTUS (Supreme Court of the United States) has now recognized that the right to equal representation demands that redistricting at every level of government be based on We the People, not some subset of the population.

"Ensuring that each representative is subject to requests and suggestions from the same number of constituents, total-population apportionment promotes equitable and effect representation.” Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

To anyone who helped or donated whose name was unintentionally omitted, I apologize. Please contact me at (831) 722-6859 or email at hashi79@sbcglobal.net and the correction will be made in our September issue.
In the kitchen of Westview Presbyterian Church, Randy Mano, our head BBQ chef, supervised Gary Mine, Marcia and Mas Hashimoto on preparation of the boneless chicken thighs for marinating with Randy’s special teriyaki sauce.
At the picnic, the chicken thighs and hot dogs, were skillfully barbequed by chefs Randy Mano, Jim Arao, Stuart Sakuma and Doug Nakashima. Everyone raved about this year’s tasty chicken. Cindy Hirokawa Mine and her kitchen crew prepared a fabulous lunch of salad, chili beans, rice, and strawberries. Chyiye Tamaki donated many loaves of delicious buttered French bread.
The dynamic Watsonville Taiko entertained us, which was followed by a splendid presentation by Dr. Brooke Kondo-Rains honoring our scholarship recipients.

The Santa Cruz County Parks Department appreciates our group for it knows we will leave the Apts Village Park cleaner than we found it.
The W-SC JACL will continue this century-old tradition of the Watsonville Nikkei community as long as our community deems it a worthwhile tradition to maintain.
Please see the photos of our picnic on pages 18 and 19 of this newsletter.
Next year’s picnic will be held on Saturday, June 24, 2017 at the Apts Village Park. Please reserve the date. We’d love to have you and your family/clan join us for a day of fun.
