THE “GAME” THAT COUNTS

No, it’s not baseball’s World Series, soccer’s World Cup, NFL’s Super Bowl, or the summer Olympics. These distractions keep too many citizens from paying attention to what’s really important!

The most important “game” which requires your attention and participation is the mid-term election on Nov. 6. Here, there are serious “winners” and “losers.”

So, how is this “game” played? The rules vary with the local, state and federal government elections. We know the penalty for “roughing the passer” in a football game. What are the penalties for violations of federal election laws by foreign governments, corporations, political organizations, unscrupulous individuals and others?

VOTE ON NOV. 6

A background story: When the Europeans landed and settled on the east coast (Virginia and New England), they forcibly “evicted” the native Americans off the land, claiming they were given the legal right – deeds -- by a monarch.

The native Americans asked, “What’s a deed?” Then, they added, “No one owns the land. The land belongs to everyone.”

Continuing, the U.S. Government, historically for nearly 250 years, have forced the indigenous natives onto desolate areas called reservations in many states. While the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution defined as citizens any person born in the U.S., the amendment had been interpreted to restrict the citizenship rights of most native people.

Finally, in 1924, the Indian Citizenship Act of June 2nd, granted full U.S. citizenship to the indigenous peoples of the United States who were labeled as “Indians” in this Act. The Act was signed into law by President Calvin Coolidge partially in recognition of the thousands of Indians who served in the armed forces during World War I. (Congress also passed in 1924 the Immigration Exclusion Act barring all immigration from Japan.)

Today, on reservations in North Dakota, the native Americans use US Post Office (P. O.) Boxes as their mailing and residential addresses. Election officials there consider P.O. Boxes as unlawful for registration. Thousands of first Americans are denied voting rights!

How can homeless citizens register to vote?

In too many states, voter suppression is all too common in this “democratic” nation. Eligible voters have been removed from registration lists and/or denied ballots. State officials have placed other obstructions to deny citizens their right to vote.

Voting machines had been manipulated in the past by political hackers.

For the first 144 years of our history women were second-class citizens and were not allowed to cast ballots in elections. The 19th Amendment, adopted in 1920, finally allowed women to vote.

The 24th Amendment to the US Constitution eliminated the poll and any other tax on voting. An accumulative poll tax (if you didn’t vote previously, those unpaid taxes were added) kept the poor, including African Americans and some poor whites, from voting forever. It became too expensive to vote.

Fortunately, in our Santa Cruz County, we have an election officer—Gail Pellerin—and her dedicated staff to assist us. Ballots, written in many languages, are available for non-English speakers upon request. Mail-in ballots have pre-paid postages now.

[Editor’s note: several non-Californians (including foreigners) have stated that we have an accent—a “California” accent.]

California is indeed fortunate to have a Secretary of State and election officers dedicated to free and open elections.

CALIFORNIA IS GROWING

At last “count,” the total US population is 325,719,178 and California’s is reported at 39,536,653 (US Census Bureau, as of July 1, 2017). Some have estimated that California’s total is now over 40 million.

California has two US Senators and 53 members of the US House of Representatives in the Congress.

California’s population is greater than 22 states and the District of Columbia combined. The states, from the smallest population, are Wyoming, Vermont, Alaska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Delaware, Montana, Rhode Island, Maine, New Hampshire, Hawaii, Idaho, West Virginia, Nebraska, Kansas, Mississippi, Nevada, Arkansas, Utah, Iowa, and Connecticut.

These 22 states have 44 US Senators and 55 Representatives (of 100 Senators and 435 Reps).

For our newsletter in full living color, log onto http://watsonvillesantacruzjacl.org, Newsletters, then the month.
Nine states hold more than one-half of the total population of the United States. They are California, Texas, Florida, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Georgia, and North Carolina. Combined, these states have 18 US Senators and 221 Representatives.

San Francisco Bay area (not including Santa Cruz, Monterey, and San Benito counties) has a greater population (7.6 million) than 37 states, and Los Angeles and Orange counties (9.9 million) has a greater population than 40 states. San Jose, CA city (1 million) has a greater population than 6 states and the District of Columbia.

With 34 percent of California’s population, the Los Angeles/Orange County region produces 36 percent of California’s economic output.

With only 17 percent of the population, the SF Bay Area produces 25 percent of the state’s output. The technology sector’s large presence in the Bay Area economy increases the per-person value of its output.

The 15 largest economies are US, China, Japan, Germany, India, France, United Kingdom, Brazil, Italy, Canada, Korea, Russia, Australia, Spain, and Mexico.

Newer estimates (US Department of Commerce, May 2018) states California is the 5th largest economy.

Even without California, the US would still be ahead of the Chinese, but for how long?

WATSONVILLE’S CRIME RATE IS DOWN!

David Honda was sworn in as the Chief of Police for the City of Watsonville in April 2016 after the retirement of Chief Manny Solano. Today, Honda commands a department of 95 staff which ably serves our community of over 52,000 residents.

Honda was born and raised in San Jose, California. Chief Honda is a third generation Japanese American (Sansei). He earned his Bachelor of Science Degree from San Jose State University and his Master of Arts Degree from Saint Mary’s College of California. He is a graduate of the Police Executive Research Forum’s Senior Management Institute for Police and a Senior Fellow of the American Leadership Forum.

Honda became a police officer for the City of San Jose in 1990 where he worked a variety of assignments that included Patrol, Youth Services, Narcotics Enforcement, Violent Crimes Enforcement, Mobile Emergency and Response (SWAT), Robbery, Traffic Enforcement, and Internal Affairs. He promoted through the ranks overseeing various units and divisions within the San Jose Police Department from Patrol and Special Operations to Communications and Administration.

In a recent interview, Honda reported that the city has experienced three consecutive years of falling crime rates—violent crime is down 2.7%, property crimes 26.6%, drug or alcohol crimes 26.7%. One issue deals with lowering traffic injuries and fatalities.

Above: during a candle light vigil at the Watsonville City Plaza, Chief Honda spoke out regarding the President’s Muslim travel ban on Feb. 19, 2017—the 75th anniversary of our incarceration (Executive Order 9066).

Recently, after a brief tour of Watsonville’s former Nihonmachi, I asked Chief Honda, what was his and/or his department’s major concern.

I was thinking on these traditional lines:

- domestic family disputes (many officers are killed when angry, drunk individuals will resort to violence—using guns);
- over use of prescription drugs; illegal drugs; marijuana, heroin, opiates;
- sexual assaults;
- alcohol;
- racial discrimination, white supremacist groups,
- immigrant population,
- gangs,
- burglaries, car thefts,
- graffiti,
- the homeless population,
- county, state, and federal assistance,
- low salaries and recruitment of officers,
- high housing costs for officers,
- officer morale.

What would you add to this list? Which would be most troubling if you were the police chief?

To my question, Chief Honda replied, “mental health.” Mental health?! That’s the major problem facing our divided nation today!

Thank you, Chief Honda, for enlightening us.

Not too long ago there was on TV an ad during which a father asks his 7-year-old son, “What do you want to be when you grow up?”

With conviction, the child replies, “A teacher.”

A disappointed father asks, “Don’t you want to be a lawyer or a doctor instead?”

Here, the child teaches the father, “If we didn’t have teachers, where would lawyers and doctors come from?”

There has never been a profession more important than that of a teacher.

Congratulations to teacher Dr. Rodney Ogawa!

GOVERNMENT BY ASSASSINATIONS

Thanksgiving this year falls on November 22nd. Fifty-five years ago (1963), November 22nd was the Friday before the Thanksgiving week.

Around 10 am, the Vice Principal came to my room to announce that the President had been shot! A few moments later he returned to say President John F. Kennedy was dead!

Watsonville High School had a 24” B&W TV set in the auditorium. I took my class there and for the remainder of the day my classes sat silently or were sobbing watching Walter Cronkite of CBS-TV.

Five months earlier Tets Hojo and I were in Dallas, Texas on the very same highway by the book depository from where Lee Harvey Oswald fired his fatal shots.

At the time, it was a federal crime to threaten the life of a President but not to take it. Therefore, as you may recall, Dallas police was in charge of the investigation.

That weekend and Thanksgiving holiday was among the saddest.

On April 4, 1968, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee. Two months later, on June 5, Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated in Los Angeles. He had just won the CA Democratic Party’s primary election for the Presidency.

In US History, these four Presidents have been assassinated while in office: Abraham Lincoln, James A. Garfield, William McKinley and John F. Kennedy.

Which Presidents, President-elects, and past Presidents experienced assassination attempts? Check the following:

- Andrew Jackson
- William Howard Taft
- Theodore Roosevelt
- Herbert Hoover
- Franklin D. Roosevelt
- Harry S. Truman
- Richard Nixon
- Gerald Ford
- Jimmy Carter
- Ronald Reagan
- George H. W. Bush
- Bill Clinton
- George W. Bush
- Barack Obama
- Donald Trump

Congratulations to Professor Emeritus of Education Rodney Ogawa (a W-SC JACLer) of University of California, Santa Cruz, who recently received the Distinguished Social Sciences Emeriti Award from Dr. Marlene Tromp, Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor and Dr. Kathryne Mitchell, Dean of the Social Sciences Division.
If you checked all, you would be correct. Donald J. Trump, too? On October 2018: William Clyde Allen III, a U.S. Navy veteran, sent a letter containing castor beans to President Trump. The letter did not reach the White House as it was seized by the Secret Service. Allen was arrested on October 3, 2018 in Utah.

Crude pipe bombs were mailed to several Democratic Party leaders—Hillary Clinton, Barack Obama and others—and CNN. Fortunately, the bombs were intercepted by the Secret Service and US Postal Service.

Locally, our friends, Monterey County Supervisors Simon Salinas and Luis Alejo, received serious threats (both are graduates of Watsonville High School).

We won’t know the motive of the attacker(s) until arrested and interrogated.

Will “mental health” play a significant role?

When we got our new chocolate lab puppy, Chelsea (photo), I was so thrilled and enthralled with her that I showed her adorable picture to everyone. I then shared about how much we enjoyed her. She has been a wonderful addition to our home - so full of life and snuggles. I couldn’t help but share about our new puppy - it just came out of me and out of my joy! I was a Chelsea evangelist!

Likewise the apostles Peter and John, when threatened by the religious leaders and temple guard (a threat that would later lead to Peter’s death and John’s imprisonment), responded with, “As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard!” (Acts 4:20)

They could not help but speak of Jesus and how their lives had been changed through knowing him and through his death and resurrection!

Evangelism is such a scary word. It brings forth images of pushy people trying to convert others. I am sad that sharing the news that has changed our lives and brought love and grace into our world has gotten such a bad rap. Evangelism means sharing Good News and is really only about sharing the greatest news our world has ever known. The great reformer, Martin Luther, said, “We are all mere beggars telling other beggars where to find bread.” We humbly have found the source of life and want others to be able to find it too!

On Sundays this Fall we are reflecting on 7 Characteristics of Vital Churches in order to work towards Revitalization - breathing new life into our church. The second Characteristic of a Vital Church is: Intentional, Authentic Evangelism vs “Jesus freaks,” “Christian” hypocrisy, or a committee.

At a recent Sunday service you shared what we at Westview can do better to help each other in Evangelism:

- We are encouraged by each other’s stories of how we came to Christ - we will try to have some stories in our Chimes in which members share their faith stories/journeys/past
- Continue to create a safe Haven here at Westview for new people to come and belong
- That we all would better listen to God prompting us to love and share with others - even when we don’t know them

Evangelism in a Vital Church is:

- Intentionally sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ, not just acts of kindness.
- Authentically sharing Christ because it is intrinsic to self-identity; overflow of Christ in our life.
- Relational, not programmatic or systematic.

The Objective is:

- To recognize that all disciples are called to evangelism, not just committees and leaders and programs; it is an authentic part of their life and the church mission
- To empower and equip all people to enter relationships unashamed and unafraid to share the Good News as a way of life
- The church recognizes that evangelism should be need-based (meets needs of unchurched/dechurched)
- The church develops practices for people to share their story and give witness to Good News in their lives
- Hospitality is not viewed as a substitute for evangelism
- The people of God meld and claim God’s story within their lives; living unafraid to share it

The world is hungry for peace, centeredness, and examples of those who serve and sacrifice for others. As the Sabbath people who display peace, love, service to the world we will be noticed by others. We will be seen as different. As we are faithful, God’s love shines through, so “Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that is within you. But do this with gentleness and respect.” (1Peter 3:15)

I pray we can encourage each other with our own coming-to-faith stories and encourage and pray for each other to have opportunities to share of the hope that is within us!

I appreciate you! You are a wonderful church family. I pray more people will get the opportunity to share in the life of the wonderful Westview family.

-Pastor Dan

Our Annual Harvest Dinner will be held on November 3rd, 5 pm at Westview. Margo: Meet Margo, a woman with a heart to feed the hungry (photo): Margo at River Park where she delivers breakfasts to the homeless. Margo Loehr is a wonderful woman who comes to our Paloma Del Mar Bible study. Her sister Judith also comes. Margo learned many years ago that the agencies in Watsonville serve lunch and dinner for the homeless and needy, but no one serves them breakfast. In response, Margo has been cooking breakfast for the homeless five mornings a week for seven years and taking it to River Park on the levee. She was no longer able to use a church kitchen so she will be doing it at Westview now, since she has come to know and love our church.

We will be installing a fridge and freezer on the back porch and maybe even a second small shed next to Solid Rock’s shed.

She gets her food through Second Harvest and has a permit from the city to distribute the food at the park. She is very well organized and has a great heart. If you would like to help her - even just one morning a week or on an occasional basis, or would like to donate to this worthy cause, please contact Pastor Dan. Checks can be written to Westview Presbyterian Church and write “homeless breakfast” in the memo. God bless you, Margo! You are feeding Christ, as you feed the hungry! (Matthew 25)

Help Your Youth/Children Grow a Strong Foundation in Christ!!

Rev. Rivera is a Puerto Rican pastor, now residing in Georgia, who helped lead our mission trip and is founding the first Suicide Crisis Center in Puerto Rico in response to the huge increase of suicides since the Hurricane Maria devastation. He is one of those life-giving people who exude the love of Christ and inspires you to love others more fully!

Westview will resume preparing and serving Salvation Army meals in December and continue every first Friday of each month through April. Volunteers are always welcome!! These Salvation Meals are a very worthwhile experience!!

Fall Sunday Message Series: We are in the midst of a series on “The 7 Marks of Congregational Vitality—breathing life into our lives and our church!” In late November we will begin a series an Advent series. Yes, Christmas is around the corner again!! I pray we can once again be drawn into God’s love as we plumb the depths or the true meaning of Christmas!

Sunday, November 18th will be our Thanksgiving Service.

Tutoring Club Update: We continue to serve several students on a one-on-one basis at different times during the week. It is a delight to reach out with love and care for our neighbors. If you would like to participate in any way please contact Mary Lou or Pastor Dan.
Tuesday Study Series: Now held on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month, 4 pm at Paloma Del Mar, 2030 Pajaro Lane in Freedom. We will continue studying Bryan Loritts’ book, Saving the Saved: How Jesus saves us from try-harder Christianity into performance-free love. Join us! It has been a delight to make new friends and “be church” at Paloma Del Mar!

Please mark your calendars for the following dates in November: November 13th, November 27th

Kenneth “Kenny” Matsui

Kenneth (Kenny) Wayne Matsui, 60, passed away quietly at his home in Aromas.

Kenny was born on January 26, 1958 in Watsonville, CA to the late Tommy Matsui and Vi Matsuoka Matsui. He was a 1976 graduate of WUHS and was at the top of his class at the Motorcycle Mechanics Institute (MMI) in Phoenix, AZ. Kenny’s greatest passions were motorcycles, skateboards, bowling, music, and God...not necessarily in that order. His love of skateboarding gave him many, lifelong friends. Kenny was a friend to almost everyone.

Kenny is survived by his sister, Valerie Matsui Sell of Redding, CA. He was lovingly called Uncle Kenny by his nieces and nephews: Sheila Johnston, Billy Sell, Kimiko Sell, Jerry Sell, and Ricky Sell, all who also live in Redding. He was also adored by his "adopted" nieces and nephew, Haley, Logan, and Emily Bloom of Hollister, as well as many, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A memorial service was held on Saturday, October 6, 2018 at Westview Presbyterian Church, 118 1st Street, Watsonville, CA.

For many decades, Kenny would donate to worthy causes, especially for children. So we are asking that in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Kenny's name, to Jacob's Heart, 680 Beach Street, Watsonville, CA 95076, or to any children's charity of your choice.

Masaye Tanimura

Masaye Tanimura passed away peacefully at home on September 3, 2018 surrounded by family members. She was 96 years old, born and raised in Watsonville, CA, the daughter of Jisaburo and Yuki Yamauchi. She, along with her siblings, helped their parents who operated a tofu shop, a family run business.

She attended and graduated from Watsonville High School. Masaye was a dedicated wife to husband George, who passed away in 2016. They met in the incarceration camp of Poston, Arizona, and were married on September 21, 1944. They were together for 70 years.

She was preceded in death by brothers John (Pat) and Shige (Rose) and sister, Dorothy (Ben).

She and George raised two children, Leslie (Ken) Morishita and son Glenn (Sheila) and are survived by four grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Memorial Service was held on Saturday, September 22 at the Buddhist Temple of Salinas.

Our deepest condolences to the Matsui and Tanimura families, relatives, and friends.
FRIENDS AND FAMILY OF NISEI VETERANS
By Franz Steidl and Joe Bowes

From October 14 to 17 of this year, at the California Hotel in Las Vegas, NV, nearly three hundred family members and 100/442 Regimental Combat Team and MIS veterans celebrated the sacrifices and accomplishments during and after World War II, the Korean War and the wars that followed.

442nd RCT veteran Sam Sakamoto with Lawson Sakai, President of FFNV and 442nd RCT veteran and organizer of this annual reunion. Photos by Franz Steidl.

“Christine and I have been attending this reunion for the past 10 years. Of interest, the Hospitality Suite featured the tastiest Watsonville strawberries, donated by Paul and Kim Tao, and delivered by Shirley Inokuchi, Iwao Yamashita’s daughter. Iwao is a Korean War veteran. A big ‘thank you’ to Paul, Kim, and Shirley,” said Joe Bowes.

Mitch Maki, President and CEO of Go For Broke National Education Center (Los Angeles) was the guest speaker. Mitch gave an eloquent speech about internment and the soldiers who changed attitudes toward Japanese Americans and bringing about laws that allowed Issei to become US citizens and implementation of redress.

At the hospitality room, Robert Horsting presented several of his excellent videos, including Citizen Tanouye, showing high school students learning about Nisei soldiers and their families.

The farewell luncheon featured winners of the raffle tickets and the Grateful Crane Ensemble, singing top hits of the 1940s.

“One member of the Ensemble sang the national anthem so beautifully. I never head a better rendition. The song ‘Danny Boy’ is very special and dear to me. It had me close to tears,” remarked Joe.

Later, a long line of Hawaiian visitors, wearing railroad caps, and making their way around the room sang along with the Ensemble’s rendition of “Chattanooga Choo Choo,” a song popular in the 1940’s.

CHICKEN TERIYAKI TAKE-OUT DINNER
SPECIAL THANKS TO ALL!

Dear Sangha,

The chairpersons of the annual Teriyaki fundraiser wish to thank each of you for a job well-done!

Each year it becomes more difficult for all of us to meet the physical challenges of creating the 2,000+ box dinners that we can be proud of. This year was again a challenge due to the number of individuals with bad backs and other age-related difficulties. We were impressed by the number of you who fought through it all and worked extremely hard to make the fundraiser a huge success. It is a testament to the dedication of our Sangha to support the temple and each other every year, regardless of the dwindling number of healthy members and volunteers.

We hope that you will give us your feedback as to how we did and let us know if you have any suggestions for us to make the Teriyaki fundraiser more effective. It is the Temple's most profitable fundraiser; however, it is extremely labor intense. We are open to suggestions for a less difficult fundraiser.

Thank you again for your help each year.

Gerry Kondo (Chairperson) and Co-Chairpersons: Alice Tanimoto, Susan Uyematsu, Perry & Kim Yoshida, Ryoko Kozuki, and Barbara Shingai.
